The Return of Spring.

Dear as the dove, whose wafting wing
The green leaf ransomed from the main,
Thy genial glow, returning Spring,
Comes to our shores again;
For thou hast been a wanderer long,
On many a fair and foreign strand,
In balm and beauty, sun and song,
Passing from land to land.

Thou bring'st the blossoms to the bee,
To earth a robe of emerald dye,
The leaflet to the naked tree,
And rainbow to the sky.
I feel thy blest benign control
The pulses of my youth restore;
Opening the spring of sense and soul,
To love and joy once more.

I will not people thy green bowers
With sorrow's pale and spectre band;
Or blend with thine the faded flowers
Of memory's distant land;
For thou wert surely never given
To wake regret for pleasures gone;
But like an angel sent from Heaven,
To soothe creation's groan.

Then, while the groves thy garland twine,
Thy spirit breathes in flower and tree,
My heart shall kindle at thy shrine,
And worship God in thee.
And in some calm sequestered spot,
While listening to thy choral strain,
Past griefs shall be a while forgot,
And pleasures bloom again.

Shot between the Eyes.

BY PAUL CRETON.

It was in a moment of passion that Dick Ankers levelled his rifle at the head of his dog, and fired. Tiger stood but three rods off; the bullet struck him between the eyes, and he fell dead without a whine.

It was on a bank of a river in Illinois.—Ankers had been out hunting and owing to wanton disobedience in Tiger, he had missed shooting three deer. Tiger would bark; therefore Ankers would get angry; and hence, the tragic fate of Tiger.

As soon as the dog was dead Dick repented. Although he dragged the carcass into the shade of some bushes on the edge of the grove near the stream, and got his knife all ready to skin him, his heart failed him and he wouldn't do it.

Dick sat down on a log, looking sorrowfully at Tiger, and meditated on the evil consequences of bad passions. About half an hour afterwards, his thoughts were interrupted by hearing the report of a rifle, on the opposite bank of the river. Looking through the bushes, he saw his neighbor, Major Nutter, standing among some willows, loading his rifle. He seemed to be gazing anxiously at some object on the same bank with Ankers further up the stream.

'He has shot something,' thought Dick.

Now the stream was not deep nor was it very broad; but it had a miry bed like all the streams which flow through the rich, dark soil of the bottom lands in the West. Dick saw it was impossible for the Major to cross without going to a bridge about half a mile up the river; and when he saw him depart rapidly in that direction he emerged from the bushes where he had laid concealed, and moved forward to see what the Major had killed.

It was a prairie wolf. He laid dead on the edge of a thicket. It struck Dick as rather a singular co-incidence, that he was shot in the head, directly between the eyes, like poor Tiger. It also appeared to Dick that the wolf looked very much like the dog; and he wondered if the Major could have distinguished them from each other, across the river.

Whilst pondering these matters in his philosophic mind, Dick—without reflecting upon what he was about, I suppose—dragged Tiger to the spot, and laid him down by the side of his wild brother. Dick looked at them together. Dick also cast his eyes up the stream and down the stream. At length Dick's mind became confused, and, on leaving the spot, he somehow committed an unaccountable blunder. In short Dick left Tiger where he had found the wolf, and dragged the wolf away. It was a singular mistake, and I can't explain it.

With great care Dick concealed the wolf in some bushes and taking a circuit through the woods, came up with Major Nutter, shortly after the latter had crossed the river.

'Hallo, Major! where are you going so fast?'

'Ha! is that you Dick?' cried the Major, looking around. 'What's your hurry? I'm going down the river, but I can't run to keep up with you.'

'Oh! I'm in no great hurry; only I've shot a wolf down here—'

'Ah! the devil you have!'

Dick's memory failed him.

'Fired across the river,' said the Major.—Dropped like a log.'

'Just so! glad to hear it. But wait a minute and I'll go with you.'

And Dick began to whistle.

'I'm calling my dog. The cur is always running off. Never can keep him near me.'

The Major expressed his sympathy—then Dick whistled again, and called at the top of his voice; but Tiger, although he was within hearing, did not see fit to come; and, in a minute, his master accompanied the Major along the bank of the river.

'That cussed dog!' complained Dick. 'I wouldn't take twenty dollars for him if he wouldn't ramble so.'

'I had the nicest shot in the world at that wolf,' said the Major. 'I hid on the opposite bank among the willows, and the minute he showed his muzzle—pop! down he went.'

'Just so,' assented Ankers.

As they approached the spot where the wolf had been shot, Dick fell behind.

'Hurrah!' cried the Major, gaily. 'There he lies!' I swear he hasn't stirred from the spot where he stood. It was a good shot, I say. It's at least fifteen rods across to where I stood, and I aimed right between his eyes. By Jonas—'

The Major had approached near enough to recognize Tiger! His countenance suddenly changed from an expression of triumph and gaiety, to one of disappointment, mortification and surprise—most ludicrous!

Dick, as we have seen, was very absent minded. Although he glanced at the Major from beneath his eye brows, he did not appear to observe the singular change in his countenance.

'Twas a good shot,' he said, in an enthusiastic tone. 'You're lucky to-day, Major.—The bounty, and the price of this skin will make quite a pile.'

'By Jonas!' repeated the astonished Major, in a voice which seemed to come all the way up from his boots—it was so deep and expressive. 'By Jonas!'

'Well Major, you make as much fuss over it as if it was an elephant!'

'But—look! I never made such a blunder before in my life! It's—it's—a—DOG!'

'My Dog,' thundered Dick, feigning great amazement. 'Tiger—that I've been whistlin' for the last half hour! How could you make such a mistake, Major? how could you? Shoot a dog for a wolf! my dog too, that don't look more like a wolf than a cow does like a hippotamus? I swear, Major, you're crazy.!'

'See here Dick,' said the Major, with a face glowing like a great coal: 'It's thundering mistaken, I know—never see a dog look quite so much like a wolf—could have sworn 'twas a wolf! Now Dick—don't tell of this! I should never hear the last of it, if the people found it out. Shoot a dog for a wolf!—By Jonas! I own the blunder, and agree to pay you a round price for your dog, provided you won't tell of it.'

'It isn't the valule of the dog I think so much about,' muttered Dick, looking mournfully at Tiger. 'But I've had him so long, set by him so consumedly! Poor Tiger!—But I won't be hard on you, Major, seeing it's a mistake, and you're willing to do what's right about it. I'll say five dollars, and mum.'

'Very well,' said the Major, with a long breath. 'I don't happen to have the tin in my trowsers, but I'll get it for you in a few days.'

After some more conversation, the Major left Dick alone with Tiger, whom he said it was his intention to skin.

An hour after, Dick had not only skinned Tiger, but, remembered something about the wolf; he had also 'peeled' the hide off from him. Ankers spread it out before him. It was a splendid hide. He thought of the price it would bring, and also contemplating the bounty money. At that moment somebody slapped him on the shoulder. He looked around. It was the Major. Dick turned all sorts of colors.

'Well, said the Major laughing, 'I never saw two skins taken off from one dog, and one of them a wolf skin! Beats the devil!'

It is impossible to describe Dick's confusion. He turned considerably redder than the Major did when he saw the wolf that he had shot transformed into a dog.

'Don't say a word,' pursued the Major.—'But 'tis queer though. Now suppose you divide, and I take the wolf skin.'

'To be sure,' stammered Dick, 'I was going to take it to you—after fooling you little.'

'Thank you!' said the Major cheerfully.—I'm really much obliged. Now when you want that five-spot, just send in your bill?'

It is needless to add, that Dick never did send in his bill, for either the loss of Tiger, or his labor, skinning the Major's wolf.

MILWAUKEE:

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, APRIL 21

Comforting to the Dead.

The Commercial, of this morning, has an article complaining bitterly because the decaying remains of Ex-Governor Dewey have been exhumed from the grave to which his party and the public have consigned him. It must be very comforting to his Ex-Excellency to be told by the party organ here, that he is dead and buried, and that "it may be that some of his acts are not susceptible of defence."

Our exposure of his mal-administration has nettled the Hunker organs exceedingly, and not being able to deny the facts, they cry out, "Did you ever! We can't deny that these things are both disgraceful and true. But then it is so mean to tell of these things, and expose the wrong-doer!"

What must be the character of deeds which the friends of the doer declare, are too shameful for publication!

But not being able to deny, or evade the facts, the Hunker organs charge the publication of our articles to Gov. Farwell, and ask, with the most amazing stupidity, Which is the most disgraced; Gov. Dewey for disregarding the laws, or Gov. Farwell for arraigning the violator of the law before the public tribunal? That is, in plain English, Does not the disgrace awarded to a convicted criminal at the bar, attach equally to the officers of justice who arrested him?

As far as the authorship of those articles are concerned, we wrote them without aid from any source. And our authority for them—"the materials for these labored essays," as the Commercial calls them—were the papers before the Committee—of which N. M. Donaldson was Chairman—appointed by the Assembly to investigate Ex-Governor Dewey's management of Executive matters. And it was Ex-Governor Dewey's communication to the Legislature and accompanying papers, attempting to excuse his Executive usurpations, which led to suspicion, the appointment of a Committee, the examination of this matter, and a report, confirming our statements, which none of the Hunker papers dare copy.

The Commercial takes the ground that the official acts of the executive in making State contracts, and disbursing the State revenues are matters which the public have no right to know, and exclaims, with characteristic simplicity, "When did Gov. Dewey surrender up the private records of his office?" We know nothing about his private records. He surrendered his office early, in January last, and we suppose he took his "private records" with him. But if they were in as sad a condition as his public records were, we are sorry for him.

We have not examined "the musty documents in the dusty pigeon-holes," and "the files of papers" in the Executive office, but from the papers before the Committee, and the intimations of the Hunker press, we have no doubt there must be some rich things there, the revelation of which would startle the community far more than our articles have done.

Such a miserably contemptible defence, as the Hunker press have set up for Ex-Gov. Dewey, exceeds their usual stupidity. And that is saying a great deal.

EMIGRANT AGENCY.—The Volksfreund says Gov. Farwell has appointed Mr. O. G. Lange, Emigrant Agent. Mr. Lange speaks seven languages fluently, is a fine scholar, and a gentleman, methodical in his habits, energetic, active, and a thorough business man, and admirably qualified for the post. No better appointment could have been made.

OUT-GENERALLED AT LAST.—The Fox and Wisconsin River Improvement Bill was log-rolled through the Legislature, by Mr. Martin's friends, by selling or threatening to sell every thing else. The Anti-Maine Liquor Law contributed vastly to its support. His friends also threatened to kill the Bank Bill unless his bill was passed. Martin's bill cut off the Wisconsin River entirely, and made his scrip a lien on the whole Improvement Fund. But after the Bank bill was passed and the Liquor Question disposed of, the friends of the Wisconsin River Improvement got up and passed the Bill, which we publish to-day, which knocks Martin's scrip in the head entirely. We will show how hereafter.

THE CLERGY AND THE POLITICIANS.—The following was one of the regular toasts, at the late festival in New York, in commemoration of the birth-day of Henry Clay:

6. The Clergy—The Enlightened Jurists of the Highest Laws.—"They teach that we owe no divided allegiance; but that our duties to our Country, to the Union, and to that Constitution which binds together this sisterhood of States, are also a part of the duties enjoined upon us by the laws of Heaven."

Christ said to his disciples, "Woe unto you when all men shall speak well of you, for so did their fathers to the false prophets."

OUTAGAMIE COUNTY ELECTION.—The election in this county for judicial officers, with the exception of Judge, took place on the 6th inst., with the following result:

Sheriff.—A. B. Everts, Democrat.
Clerk of the Court.—Henry S. Eggleston, Democrat.
Prosecuting Attorney.—George H. Myers, Whig.

Test Question.—In order to test the witticism of the Irish, the following question was recently put by a knot of gents to a newly imported son of the Emerald Isle:

'If the devil should be told he might have one of us, which would he first choose?'

'Why me, to be sure!' responded Pat.

'And why so?'

'Faith he knows he could get either of you at any time.' The gents were satisfied, and adjourned sine die.

BALLOT BOXES.—John G. Saxe, Esq., of the Burlington Sentinel, in speaking about the right of women to vote, says:

"Cradles are the ballot-boxes for women—in which they should deposit, not votes, but voters. That makes a warwick of every mother of 'em."

Very well: when all those she deposits in her ballot-box shall be voters, few will ask any more votes.—Mrs. Swisshelm.

Boilers of the Glencoe.—The Despatch, St. Louis, says:

"The boilers of the Glencoe, we are informed, were made new for the old Louisville and New Orleans steamer War Eagle. This makes them some fourteen years old."

☞ M. Guizot is about to publish a work on "Shakspeare and his Times" composed of a life of the bard, and several articles which he has before written on the play.

THE JAPAN EXPEDITION.—Sundry documents relating to the Japanese Expedition were sent in to the Senate, by the President, on Monday. The following is an interesting extract from the letter of President Fillmore, to the Emperor of Japan; its tone does not sustain the belligerent reports which journals, claiming to be in the confidence of the Executive, have circulated concerning the objects of the Expedition.—N. Y. Times.

'I send you by this letter an envoy of my own appointment, an officer of high rank in his country, who is no missionary of religion. He goes by my command to bear to you my greeting and good wishes, and to promote friendship and commerce between the two countries.

'You know that the United States of America now extend from sea to sea; that the great countries of Oregon and California are parts of the United States; and that from these countries, which are rich in gold and silver and precious stones, our steamers can reach the shores of your happy land in less than twenty days.

'Many of our ships will now pass in every year, and some perhaps in every week between California and China; these ships must pass along the coast of your Empire; storms and winds may cause them to be wrecked on your shores, and we ask and expect from your friendship and your greatness, kindness for our men and protection for our property. We wish that our people may be permitted to trade with your people, but we shall not authorize them to break any law of your Empire.

'Our object is friendly commercial intercourse, and nothing more. You may have productions which we should be glad to buy, and we have productions which might suit your people.

'Your Empire contains a great abundance of coal; this is an article which our steamers, in going from California to China, must use. They would be glad that a harbor in your Empire should be appointed to which coal might be brought, and where they might always be able to purchase it.

'In many other respects, commerce between your Empire and our country would be useful to both. Let us consider well what new interests may arise from these recent events which have brought our two countries so near together; and what purposes of friendly amity and intercourse this ought to inspire in the hearts of those who govern both countries.'

BOZ.—"A fellow-passenger with Mr. Dickens, in the Britannia steamships, across the Atlantic, inquired of the author the origin of his signature, 'Boz.' Mr. Dickens replied that he had a little brother who resembled so much the 'Moses in the Vicar of Wakefield,' that he used to call him Moses, also; but a younger girl, who could not then articulate plain, was in the habit of calling him 'Bozie, Boz.' This simple circumstance made him assume that name in the first article he risked to the public, and therefore, he continued the name, as the first effort was approved of."

Imports of Wheat from the Wabash.—The steamers Uncle Sam and R. H. Lee are now discharging at the landing nearly 25,000 bush. wheat, which has just arrived from the Wabash, and the principal portion of which is imported by our millers. We learn that there are about 50,000 bush. more to come from that quarter. The quality of the grain is extremely fine, and from it will be manufactured some superior specimens of flour.—St. Louis Union.

CITY MATTERS.

THE WEATHER.—A driving storm from the northwest set in yesterday morning, and continued incessantly throughout the day and the forepart of last night. A large quantity of rain has fallen, swelling the river to a high mark, inundating the low grounds, and rendering the streets a perfect sea of mud. The cellars in many parts of the city are plentifully supplied with fresh water.

To-day the weather assumes a much pleasanter appearance.

STEALING THE BIBLE.—A troupe of heathenish scoundrels broke into Rood & Whittemore's store the other night, and took therefrom a quantity of Bibles, but nothing else. Perhaps, however, had they not been disturbed in their pleasant occupation, they might have made quite an extensive collection among the nice things. And again, in examining their booty, their eyes might have caught a glimpse of the decalogue, in which theft is peremptorily forbidden, and therefore consider it best to desist at once. It is perhaps fortunate that they took what they did, as they contain such instruction as may be essentially necessary to their salvation.

THEY'VE COME.—Herbert Reed has just received his long expected cargo of Garden Seeds, from Holland, which have the reputation of being the best in the world, and warranted to grow every time. Try them and see. His advertisement will tell you all about it.

THE BLACK SWAN'S LAST CONCERT.—The Concert last evening was not so well attended as the first, owing to the severe storm that prevailed all day and all the evening.—Still a respectable number were present, and seemed equally pleased as at the first. The impression she has created upon all seems to be that she possesses remarkable natural powers, and that with the same instruction and cultivation that the other most celebrated singers have had, she may equal the greatest of them. We understand that Mr. Wood, the liberal and gentlemanly agent, will sail with her for Europe, in July, to place her under the instruction of Garcia, and with proper effort and and advantages, we know not what rank as a singer, will be too high for her to reach. Messrs. Becht and Schmittroth maintained their reputation as finished performers, and added much to the pleasure of the audience. Yankee Doodle was loudly called for and played by Mr. Schmittroth, with the "variations," in the most scientific and skillful manner. If he would only play some of the common tunes in the old musical way, we think he could extract as much melody from a violin as any body we ever heard. They left to-day for Chicago, whence they return to the East.

For the Free Democrat.

Milwaukee Normal Institute.

Mr. Editor: Will you allow us a few words with our citizens, in reference to our Educational enterprise? Many are desirous to know definitely the designs of the Trustees.

We are happy to announce that the grounds for the new buildings are purchased, and have become the property of the Institution—8½ lots at the corner of Milwaukee and Division Streets, First Ward.

It is the purpose of the Trustees to proceed immediately with the erection of, at least, the main edifice, 40 by 70 feet. Our estimates show that this will cost in the neighborhood of $3,000.

This Institution belongs to the citizens of Milwaukee and is under the control of the Board of Trustees they have chosen from the various religious denominations. Too much has been gained already to allow this enterprise to fail.

We have a liberal Charter from the Legislature. We have a faculty of able and experienced teachers. We have an endowment of $1000 in Library and Apparatus. We have $2000 contributed to the enterprise by its friends at the East, with which our grounds are purchased. We have the pledge of one endowment as soon as our buildings are completed, and a fair prospect of two others.—We have an organization, the plan of which is deemed pre-eminently excellent by the ablest educators in our country. We have the entire income of the school, beyond its expenses and the reasonable salary of its Teachers, appropriated to increase the beauty and value of the property and the efficiency of the Institution.

We have gained a reputation for the Institution throughout the state which is of no small value to the city.

Our plans and specifications are being made preparatory to contracting for the erection of the building. We rely, with all confidence, upon our citizens to furnish the means for this work. More than half of the $3000 is already subscribed. We are now laboring to fill up the subscription. We know the times are hard and self-denial may be required; but in the determined will there is strength. All things are possible to those who will. We beseech every man to put his shoulder to the wheel. This will do the work. Let every citizen decide, at once, to take some stock in this bank of learning—this Institution whose issues will always be at par in all markets, because made upon an exhaustless basis better than gold and silver.

The Trustees have resolved to offer a limited number of scholarships at $200. One scholarship pays the tuition of one scholar perpetually.

The Trustees and Teachers have deemed it expedient to suspend the school during the summer months, rather than rent for a full year, the premises heretofore occupied.

We design to have the new edifice ready for a fresh and vigorous opening of the school at an early day in the fall.

In behalf of the Trustees,
W. L. PARSONS, Sec'y.

The names of the Trustees are as follows:

I. A. Lapham,	Alex. Mitchell,
G. J. Fowler,	J. H. Van Dyke,
W. P. Flanders,	G. P. Hewitt,
A. Finch, Jr.,	E. Cramer,
J. P. Greves,	R. N. Austin,

MILWAUKEE, April 20, 1852.

"If a man would keep both integrity and independence free from temptation, let him keep out of debt." Dr. Franklin says, "it is hard for an empty bag to stand upright."

SALE OF FURNITURE.—Mr. Caleb Wall, City Auctioneer, will sell at Auction, tomorrow morning, at ten o'clock, the Furniture of H. J. Nazro, Esq., the sale to be held at the residence of Mr. Nazro, on Milwaukee street.

HEART-RENDING.—We learn that the house of Oliver Tripp, in Vinland was burned to the ground, on the 7th instant. Every thing lost, a part of the family barely escaping. A little girl, was so badly burned, before it was rescued, that it died soon after.—Oshkosh Dem.

IMPORTED HOLLAND
GARDEN SEEDS.
From the Horticultural Garden of
J. D. ZOCHER & VOORHELM SCHNEEVOOGT,
Florists and Horticulturists, Harlem, Holland

THESE truly fresh, prime and reliable Garden Seeds, of the crop of 1851, are from one of the most celebrated and extensive Horticultural Gardens in the world. They are of superior sorts, and have been carefully selected by the proprietors, from the best and most vigorous plants—all, not strictly prime, being rejected by them.
Each paper has the year printed on it when the Seed was raised, so as to secure the purchaser against imposition of having old seeds palmed off upon him for new—a practice hitherto much complained of. It stands to reason, moreover, that when Seeds are distributed early in the fall, (and before the new crop can possibly have been gathered, put up and delivered,) they must, of necessity, be old seeds!
Orders for Garden Seeds; Fruit Trees, and Espaliers, comprising every variety of Apricots, Peaches, Pears, Cherries, Apples, Plums, &c. &c.
most highly approved: Also, standard Rose Trees, Shrubbery, and Bulbous Flower Roots, if addressed to the subscriber, by letter, pre-paid, will be forwarded by him to the house in Harlem, and promptly and carefully executed. Pittsburgh—Railroad Routes and Fares—Mr. Van Amringe's Meetings—Signs of the Evil to come—The Remedy.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 13, 1852.

Friend Booth—

Since I was here in 1818, Pittsburgh has much increased in buildings and population. It presents an appearance of activity and enterprise. The city, however, is now, as formerly, dark and sooty with the smoke from bituminous coal.

I came on the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad. The fare through is $4. You leave Cleveland at 9 in the morning, and reach Pittsburgh at 5½ o'clock in the afternoon. The distance is 140 miles. This is by continuous Railroad, and is said to be much the pleasantest route. The other route is by Railroad from Cleveland to Wellsville (a town on the Ohio river), and then up the Ohio from Wellsville to Pittsburgh by steamboat.

The Central Railroad from Pittsburgh to Philadelphia is now completed, with the exception of about 28 miles over a portion of the mountains. This gap is travelled by stages. The fare from Pittsburgh to Philadelphia (a distance of about 350 miles), by the Central Railroad and stages over the part not yet constructed, is $11, and the trip is said to be performed in thirty hours. There are two daily trains by this route to Philadelphia—one leaves Pittsburgh at 6½ A. M., and the other at 6½ P. M. There are other lines from Pittsburgh to Philadelphia—one by Railroad and Canal passing by Blairsville, and another by boats, stages and the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad by way of Baltimore; but I am not particularly informed of them. I think the fares on them are lower than by the route mentioned, but they are not, I believe, generally preferred by travellers.

I expect to hold Reform Meetings at Pittsburgh on Friday, or the latter part of this week and the beginning of next. I have also received invitations to hold meetings at adjoining places. My time may be occupied in this place and vicinity, I presume, for about three weeks. Land Reform has, I believe, had no special attention called to it by lectures in these parts for a long period. My desire is to give it a new impulse.

To my perception of things, the condition of our country does not betoken future safety. The spirit of covetousness seems to increase; pauperism is unquestionably increasing, and it never fails to bring crime, ignorance and political weakness. Men are deceived by an appearance of prosperity, arising from the accumulation of fortunes in a few hands. This is no indication of general prosperity, but of corruption; for the few are becoming rich, and the many are becoming poor and poorer. The times are assuming the character of those of Noah; people are engrossed by the cares of food, clothing and shelter, and their hearts are turned from God and from each other. Unless we have a speedy individual and national repentance, we and the world must encounter an overthrow no less signal than that which destroyed the impenitent wicked in former ages.

How strange it is that men cannot see the signs of the alarming evil to come! What chance now has the working man of secure employment and good wages? How high and impassable is the barrier becoming between the rich and the poor? What hope has the small capitalist of competing successfully against the combined wealth of companies who have millions at their command, and who are rapidly engrossing all business? Our middle men are fast disappearing, and we shall soon have the two extremes of rich and poor. And wo to our country, when that shall be the state of things!

It is not too late, however, to correct this condition of affairs. The practical recognition of the right of all men to the free use of a portion of earth for a home and subsistence, together with land limitation, will correct present evils and obviate future. Whether our country will have honesty and intelligence enough to apply the remedy, time must determine. Your friend,

H. H. VAN AMRINGE.

Washington, April 14.

SENATE.—Mr. Davis presented a memorial from Mr. Choate and 100 of the members of the bar of Boston, to increase the salary of the District Judge of Massachusetts.

Mr. Chase wishing to be absent for two weeks, asked the indulgence of the Senate to take up the bill granting to the State of Ohio, unsold and unappropriated lands in that State. Mr. Chase's motion was agreed to, and the bill taken up and considered.

HOUSE.—The Speaker announced the first business in order to be the consideration of the report of the committee on Printing which was debated yesterday.

Mr. Brown of Mississippi, yielded the floor to Mr. Florence, who withdrew his amendments, offered yesterday.

Mr. Florence said he intended to move to recommit the report, with instructions to report to establish a Government Printing office together with the resolution of yesterday, as an additional section of the bill.

Mr. Brown then resumed his speech.

The Senate committee, to investigate the transactions of the Mexican Boundary Commissioners, have determined to take up every case decided by that board, and to trace it in all its connections, ab initio.

Among the amendments reported by the finance committee of the Senate to the deficiency bill, an item of $236,000 for the Collins line, in conformity with the recommendation of the P. M. General, so as to increase the number of trips to 26 per annum.

The Union party in Morgan county, Ga., refuse to send delegates to either the Baltimore, or Philadelphia Conventions.

Kossuth and suite arrived yesterday, and are staying at the National.

The Democrats of Columbia, N. C., have nominated Mr. Buchanan for the Presidency.

In the Senate yesterday, the Capitol Enlargement bill was passed, as it came from the House.

Madison Correspondence.

MADISON, April 19, 1852.

Fox and Wisconsin River Improvement.—The Legislature, before they adjourned, as we anticipated they would, virtually reconsidered their action upon the bill relating to this Improvement which was vetoed by the Governor, and finally passed, quite unanimously, a bill setting apart and devoting One Sixth of the entire fund, for the improvement of the Wisconsin river.

This last bill virtually suspends the operation of the law passed over the Governor's veto, prevents the issuing of the "Stock Certificates," and the receiving of anything except money, for the sales of land. And it also contains a repealing clause, repealing all the features in the vetoed bill, mentioned as objectionable in the Governor's Message. So that the Governor has been sustained by the Legislature in this, as well as in all other cases where he has interposed his veto during the present session. And the prospect of any further State debt, for this work, is effectually checked. This will appear to the satisfaction of any person, who will take the trouble to read the two laws named.

The last Act is as follows:

An Act requiring the Board of Public Works to proceed in the Improvement of the Wisconsin River, and to authorize the selling or leasing the Hydraulic Power at the Lift Lock on the Portage canal.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SEC. 1. The Commissioners of the Board of Public Works are hereby authorized and required to commence the work of improvement of the navigation of the Wisconsin river below the Portage the present season, and to complete the same as soon as practicable, according to the plans of the Chief Engineer, in his Report for the year 1849, and pursuant to law to let contracts for such works of improvement.

SEC. 2. The one sixth of the proceeds of the sales of the lands granted by Congress for the improvement of the Fox and Wisconsin rivers, and connecting the same by a canal, is hereby set apart for the payment of the expenses of such necessary improvement of the navigation of the Wi consin river, and no other application of any part of said one sixth of the proceeds of the sales of said lands shall be made until the completion of the improvement of the navigation of said Wisconsin river, according to the provisions of the first section of this Act. And all acts and parts of acts contravening the provisions of this section are hereby repealed.

SEC. 3. The Board of Public Works are hereby authorized and empowered to lease such portions of the Hydraulic Power at the Lift Lock on the Portage Canal, at Fort Winnebago, on such terms as they may deem most for the interest of the State, but which shall not in any wise injure the navigation of said canal.

SEC. 4. The moneys derivable from the rents accruing under the lease of such Hydraulic Power, may be expended in the improvement and completion of said Canal.

SEC. 5. This act to be in force from and after its publication.

The Boy and the Brick.—A Fable.—A boy hearing his father say, "'Twas a poor rule that wouldn't work both ways,' said, 'If father applies this rule about his work, I will test it in my play.'

So setting up a row of bricks, three or four inches apart, he tipped over the first, which striking the second, caused it to fall on the third, which overturned the fourth, and so on through the whole course, until all the bricks lay prostrate.

"Well," said the little boy, "each brick has knocked down his neighbor which stood next to him; I only tipped one. Now I will raise one, and see if he will raise his neighbor. I will see if raising one will raise all the rest.'

He looked in vain to see them rise.

'Here, father,' said the boy, 'is a poor rule; 'twill not work both ways. They knock each other down, but will not raise each other up.'

'My son,' said the father, 'bricks and mankind are alike, made of clay, active in knocking each other down, but not disposed to help each other up.'

'Father,' said the boy, 'does the first brick represent Adam?'

The father replied in the following:

Moral.—'When men fall, they love company, but when they rise, they love to stand alone, like yonder brick, and see others prostrate below them.—Christian Secretary.

Ohio Correspondence.

PAINESVILLE, April 14, '52.

Editor of the Free Democrat:

I am a friend of universal man, no matter of what clime or complexion. In Hungary, I am in favor of Hungarian liberty—in Russia, I am for the uplifting of the serfs, to an equality with other classes—in France, I am for the overthrow of the usurper—in Italy, I am for the demolition of ecclesiastical despotism—in the United States, I would "undo the heavy burden" of the cruelly oppressed colored man, and let him "go free." I repeat, Sir, I am a friend of the friendless everywhere, and as such I desire the privilege of recording my dissent to some views put forth in an editorial article of the Free Democrat, entitled, "A new Organization."

You desire the formation of a new Democratic party, and for the purpose of "re-asserting the great principle of human liberty," that "shall be truly Democratic, loving liberty and hating slavery and oppression, &c., &c." We have an organization now that does all this, and what more do we want? What matter is it about the name? It is said there is nothing in that. And how is the formation of new organizations continually, to help us? It will not, but rather injure us. It may, however, upon the same principle that the old man's boys made fifty cents a piece trading coats with each other, in the barn, of a rainy day.

No; this will not do. It has too much the appearance of fudge about it. It looks too much as if there was a design manifest, to curry favor with the old Democratic party, so called, this hoary-headed conglomeration of iniquity and intrigue,—to make a compromise with it. And what does compromise mean, but concession to wrong—a coming down from a loftier and more truthful position to engraft into your noble creed, principles or doctrines, that are pernicious and corrupt? We have an example of this kind of compromising in our State, Senator Chase and Norton S. Townsend have joined hands with the monster iniquity, (against reason and common-sense,) for the avowed purpose of strengthening the liberty principle, and of what avail is it? Their influence is already gone and what will they have left when disrobed of the power of place?

> "One sad losel soils a name for aye,
> However mighty in the olden time;
> Nor all that heralds rake from coffin'd clay,
> Nor florid prose, nor honied lies of rhyme,
> Can blazon evil deeds, or consecrate a crime."

Party ties are the greatest obstacles to the spead of the principles of Freedom and Fraternity, and these you say "have been weakened, and factions and discord created in the old party organizations." Then what we need to do, is to stand firm and true, turning neither to the right nor the left, yielding to no compromises, with our banner to the breeze, and our principle inscribed thereon to be read and known by men. Every shift, every attempt at re-organization, at coalition with either of the old corrupt parties, brings confusion in, and disgrace and division upon, our party. Touch not, meddle not, with the unclean thing. "Truth is mighty, and will prevail.

I know there is a dark time just now.—The infamous compromise has been re-endorsed recently. I know that the action of the government seems to be retrogressive and downward, and downward still. Algiers needs to blush no longer at the enormities she has perpetrated, whilst the American government commits such God-provoking crimes every day that passes.

Sir, I am one of that class of Free Soil or Free Democratic men who never concede that any man or set of men has the right to possess themselves of the liberty of another, except it be for crime, and then not to chattelize him. I don't care how long a man has been a slave, nor his ancestors before him, the wrong is not sanctioned, and now is the time for his unconditional liberation. If the constitution can be strained to regulate or to countenance such a barbarous system, blacken that part of it, or disregard it. It isn't fit to govern men, responsible beings, bound to give an account in another world, for the deeds done in this. I have done with concessions—with apologies for Constitutional compromises—with hair-splitting arguments to determine how long a man may outrage unresisting and helpless humanity with impunity. It is always right and in time to be just, and why not do it in the present. And now I can't see why you want a new organization, to carry forward even my radical notions.—No, Sir; it is beter to spend your time in preaching for the adoption of your principles, instead of frittering it away in efforts to establish a new organization, that can do no more than your present one.

You will have no more help then, than now, if you have none but true men. Not that there are no good and true men in the old parties—there are many, but they will lend us their aid and influence with our present name as soon as with any other. So, then, if you are upon the right ground now, stand to it, but if you have been wrong for all time past, then, abandon your position immediately but not otherwise. Our policy is to convert men over to our principles, not compromise with them.

If there is a Providence that directs, or controls the affairs of men and nations, this inhuman system of slavery, cannot exist always.—But should it continue until the noon of the next century, no less exorbitant in its demands than now, and not crippled in the least, I believe in sincerity, that men will doubt the justice of the Almighty, nay, doubt the existence of such a Being, so inconceivably wicked is this institution. Then may be seen the period when the temporal government of this world will be consigned to atheistical hands. But whatever may be the truth in this respect, I look for the extripation of slavery at some day far or near. Everything carried to excess will react. And when that poor oppressed people, the colored race, shall have grown strong in numbers, and their afflictions become too grievous to be borne longer, then will they rise in their might and re-assert, at least so far as their liberties are concerned, the dangerous doctrines of their masters, that might is right. But when it comes to this, it will not stop here, for then will a spirit of revenge, aroused by the memory of past injuries, seize upon the frenzied brain of the African, and the horrors of the dissolution of this Union, as depicted by sham politicians and dough-faces, will bear no comparison with the realities of this day.

I am for no new organization, whether Democratic or otherwise. I see no need of any. Let us hold on firmly to our principles, and move on in the tenor of our way, making no shifts or bargains, but manifesting a devotion to our principles, that evinces no "variableness or shadow of turning," and unless mankind are totally depraved, they will in time come over to us. Yes, let us hold on, for the spirit of thralldom must pass away.—Let us watch for the evidences of the early dawn of that day, when emancipation shall come to the enthralled. For, should it come as God grant it may, in peace, through the relentings of the usurper, it will be a day of rejoicings, whose brightness will almost rival the glorious splendors of the Millennial morn.

Yours, &c., L. S. A.

REMARKS.—Our correspondent's letter is chiefly devoted to a protest against compromising our principles, and seeking to form a coalition with old corrupt political organizations. We shall be the last to quarrel with him on this point. We are as fully convinced of the evil and short-sightedness of such a course, as he can be. And we do not consider his remarks on this subject at all applicable to our article in favor of a "new organization," until he shows that the organization we there advocated, would be a "compromise of principle." So far from its being so, we proposed to have it avow boldly and fully the principles we advocate, and its determination to be governed by them in all its action. So far from its being an attempt to form a "coalition" with either of the old parties, we advocated the necessity for it upon the express ground that both of those parties were so hopelessly committed to the policy of the Slave Power, that the friends of freedom could not consistently act with them.

We believe, as we stated in our former article, that the Free Soil party was established for a particular, temporary purpose, which was to prevent the threatened introduction of slavery into California and New Mexico.—And though the Buffalo Platform was a noble one, and included all of the other prominent questions of the day, yet the conviction that its particular object was as we have stated, and that it was not to be a permanent and lasting organization, was very general among those who acted with it at that time. Many of them since that crisis has passed, have accordingly gone back to the old parties, and those who have not, have acted in an isolated, disconnected manner, sometimes in coalitions, sometimes independently as seemed to them best in the local circumstances in which they found themselves. What we now wish is that a new organization shall be formed, with the understanding that it is to be permanent. Let the Buffalo Platform be enlarged so as to meet the new questions that have since arisen, and let the new party stand upon it. Let it take the name of Democratic, or Free Democratic, for that would be its appropriate name and one to which it would be justly entitled. And we believe such an organization may be made the means of hastening the day, which our correspondent so much desires, "when emancipation shall come to the enthralled." And such a course would be far wiser than "to watch for the evidences of the early dawn of that day," and trusting in "Providence" to bring it about, without making use of the appropriate and resonable means to accomplish the objects we may desire.

For the Removal and Permanent Cure of all
NERVOUS DISEASES,
And of those Complaints which are caused by an impaired, weakened or unhealthy condition of the
NERVOUS SYSTEM.

This beautiful and convenient application of the mysterious powers of GALVANISM and MAGNETISM, has been pronounced by distinguished physicians, both in Europe and the United States, to be the most valuable medicinal discovery of the Age.

Dr. CHRISTIE'S GALVANIC BELT and
MAGNETIC FLUID, is used with the most perfect and certain success in all cases of
GENERAL DEBILITY,
Strengthening the weakened body, giving tone to the various organs, and invigorating the entire system. Also in FITS, CRAMP, PARALYSIS and PALSY, DYSPEPSIA or INDIGESTION, RHEUMATISM, ACUTE and CHRONIC, GOUT, EPILEPSY, LUMBAGO, DEAFNESS, NERVOUS TREMORS, PALPITATION OF THE HEART, APOPLEXY, NEURALGIA, PAINS in the SIDE and CHEST, LIVER COMPLAINT, SPINAL COMPLAINT, and CURVATURE of the SPINE, HIP COMPLAINT, DISEASES of the KIDNEYS, DEFICIENCY of NERVOUS and PHYSICAL ENERGY, and all NERVOUS DISEASES, which complaints arise from one simple cause—namely,

A Derangement of the Nervous System.

☞ In NERVOUS COMPLAINTS, Drugs and Medicines increase the disease, for they weaken the vital energies of the already prostrated system; while, under the strengthening, life-giving, vitalizing influence of Galvanism, as applied by this beautiful and wonderful discovery, the exhausted patient and weakened sufferer is restored to former health, strength, elasticity and vigor.

The great peculiarity and excellence of

Dr. Christie's Galvanic Curatives, consists in the fact that they arrest and cure disease by outward application, in place of the usual mode of drugging, and physicking the patient till exhausted Nature sinks hopelessly under the infliction.

They strengthen the whole system, equalize the circulation of the blood, promote the secretions, and never do the slightest injury under any circumstances. Since their introduction in the United States, only three years since—more than 75,000 Persons, including all ages, classes and conditions, among which were a large number of ladies, who are peculiarly subject to Nervous Complaints, have been

when all hope of relief had been given up, and every thing else been tried in vain!

To illustrate the use of the GALVANIC BELT suppose the case of a person afflicted with that bane of civilization, DYSPEPSIA, or any other Chronic or Nervous Disorder. In ordinary cases, stimulants are taken which, by their action on the nerves and muscles of the stomach afford temporary relief, but which leave the patient in a lower state and with injured faculties, after the action thus excited has ceased. Now compare this with the effect resulting from the application of the GALVANIC BELT. Take a Dyspeptic sufferer, even in the worst symptoms of an attack, and simply tie the Belt around the Body, using the Magnetic Fluid as directed. In a short period the insensible perspiration will act on the positive element of the Belt, thereby causing a Galvanic circulation which will pass on to the negative, and thence back again to the positive, thus keeping up a continuous Galvanic circulation throughout the system. Thus the most severe cases of DYSPEPSIA are PERMANENTLY CURED. A FEW DAYS IS AMPLY SUFFICIENT TO ERADICATE THE DISEASE OF YEARS.

CERTIFICATES AND TESTIMONIALS
Of the most Undoubted Character,
From all parts of the country could be given, sufficient to fill every column in this paper!

AN EXTRAORDINARY CASE, which conclusively proves that
"Truth is stranger than Fiction."
CURE OF
RHEUMATISM, BRONCHITIS, AND DYSPEPSIA
REV. DR. LANDIS, A CLERGYMAN of New Jersey, of distinguished attainments and exalted reputation:—

SIDNEY, New Jersey, July 12, 1848.

DR. A. H. CHRISTIE—Dear Sir: You wish to know of me what has been the result in my own case, of the application of THE GALVANIC BELT AND NECKLACE. My reply is as follows:

For about twenty years I had been suffering from Dyspepsia. Every year the symptoms became worse, nor could I obtain permanent relief from any course of medical treatment whatever. About fourteen years since in consequence of frequent exposure to the weather, in the discharge of my pastoral duties, I became subject to a severe Chronic Rheumatism, which for year after year caused me indescribable anguish. Farther: in the winter of '45 and '46, in consequence of preaching a great deal in my own and various other churches in this region, I was attacked by the Bronchitis, which soon became so severe as to require an immediate suspension of my pastoral labors. My nervous system was now thoroughly prostrated, and as my Bronchitis became worse, so also did my Dyspepsia and Rheumatic affection—thus evincing that these disorders were connected with each other through the medium of the Nervous System. In the whole pharmacopœia there seemed to be no remedial agent which could reach and recuperate my Nervous System; every thing that I had tried for this purpose had completely failed. At last I was led by my friends to examine your inventions, and (though with no very sanguine hopes of their efficiency,) I determined to try the effect of the application of the GALVANIC BELT AND NECKLACE, with the MAGNETIC FLUID. This was in June, 1848. TO MY GREAT ASTONISHMENT, IN TWO DAYS MY DYSPEPSIA HAD GONE; IN EIGHT DAYS I WAS ENABLED TO RESUME MY PASTORAL LABORS, NOR HAVE I SINCE OMITTED A SINGLE SERVICE ON ACCOUNT OF THE BRONCHITIS; AND MY RHEUMATIC AFFECTION HAS ENTIRELY CEASED TO TROUBLE ME. Such is the wonderful and happy result of the experiment.

I have recommended the BELT and FLUID to many who have been likewise suffering from Neuralgic affections. They have tried them, WITH HAPPY RESULTS, I BELIEVE, IN EVERY CASE.

I am, dear sir, very respectfully yours,
ROBERT W. LANDIS.

DR. CHRISTIE'S GALVANIC NECKLACE
Is used for all complaints affecting the Throat or Head such as Bronchitis, Inflammation of the Throat, Nervous and Sick Headache, Dizziness of the Head, Neuralgia in the Face, Buzzing or Roaring in the Ears, Deafness, which is generally Nervous, and that distressing complaint, called Tic Doloreux.

DR. CHRISTIE'S GALVANIC BRACELETS
Are found of vast service in cases of Convulsions or Fits, Spasmodic Complaints, and general Nervous Affections of the Head and upper extremities. Also in Palsy and Paralysis, and all diseases caused by a deficiency of power or Nervous Energy in the limbs or other organs of the body.

☞ Many hundred Certificates from all parts of the country of the most extraordinary character can be given, if required.

☞ No trouble or inconvenience attends the use of DR. CHRISTIE'S GALVANIC ARTICLES, and they may be worn by the most feeble and delicate, with perfect ease and safety. In many cases the sensation attending their use is highly pleasant and agreeable. They can be sent to any part of the country.

Prices:

The Galvanic Belt,	Three Dollars.

GREAT WORK ON CIVILIZATION.
This valuable work has just arrived at
C. OTT'S BOOKSTORE.
It is the work of the age. From a large number of liberal and highly complimentary notices of this work, from the religious and secular press, we only select the following:

"This admirable work is at length before us; and we hasten to inform our readers of the valuable addition, which has thus been made to the Literature of our country. The work is by far the most important of its kind, ever published in this country. It is in fact a complete library in itself, condensed and so arranged as to bring the whole question within the grasp of the humblest reader. It appears most appropriately at the present time, and will, no doubt, prove an instrument of great efficacy in the work of diffusing sound doctrines on the matters of which it treats."—Truth Teller. april 22

GREAT WESTERN STOVE DEPOT!
Nos. 87, 89 and 91, East Water street,
MILWAUKEE.
THE subscribers having been appointed agents of the PRESQUE ISLE IRON FOUNDRY, (the largest Stove manufactory in the United States,) are prepared to offer to the trade, and to retail customers
A better article of Stoves and at LOWER PRICES, than can be bought at any place west of Albany.
From an experience of ten years in the Store business in Milwaukee, we have learned what kinds are best adapted to the wants of this country, and have no hesitation in saying, that in point of style, utility and durability, the excel all others brought to this market. The designs and patterns are neat and tasteful, and being run from the blast, are not as liable to crack as those run from the pig, for the reason that the latter receives one more melting than the former.
PRESQUE ISLE FOUNDRY STOVES
Among our Cooking Stoves may be found the LION and PRIZE, two Stoves that stand without a rival among the "Air Tights." The Lion is a diving three flue stove, with two tops, one for barrel or five pail kettles, and the other for boilers, tea-kettles, pots, &c; also, the KEYSTONE, and CHAUTAUQUE FARMER, with elevated ovens. The Keystone is regarded by all who have seen it as the finest specimen of a cooking stove ever presented to the public, and the fact is attested by the large number sold.
The Chautauque, Farmer, was designed expressly for the farmers' use, it having no inside or division plates, making the fire-place large and not liable to burn out.
Of the above mentioned Stoves we might give over 500 certificates, proving their good qualities, from persons who have used them; but as we guarantee them to be the best in use, we do not deem it necessary. We have also every variety of Premium and Double-Oven Cooking,
From No 1 to 6; also a great variety of AIR-TIGHT PARLORS!
of splendid patterns, with and without folding doors, together with an endless variety of PLATE AND COAL STOVES, all of which we respectfully request you to call and examine before purchasing
